Abstract:
About B'ZEOS Founded in 2018, B'ZEOS is a European blue-tech company leading the way in sustainable packaging solutions made from seaweed. B'ZEOS has developed a proprietary seaweed-based technology designed to replace fossil-based packaging. Our solutions are 100% bio-based, home-compostable, and compatible with existing packaging production lines. B'ZEOS is committed to reducing plastic waste and advancing the circular economy by formulating innovative packaging solutions for various industries including food, cosmetics, and pharmaceuticals.
